

Dublin Parks Tennis League CLG – Child Protection policy

Disciplinary, Complaints & Appeals of Code of Behaviour Breaches

APPENDIX 8 -

Dublin Parks Tennis will ensure that it has adequate disciplinary, complaints and appeals procedures in place.

It is important to note that the investigation of suspected child abuse is the responsibility of the Statutory Authorities and should not be undertaken by Children's Officers/ Designated Liaison Person's or other organisation/club Sports Leaders.

The standard reporting procedure outlined in the Statutory Authorities guidelines will be followed by this organisation and adhered to by its members.

Recommended Procedures

This organisation will operate on the basis of good practice to include a complaints/appeals procedure similar to the following:

- A code of conduct reflecting a child centred ethos should be drawn-up, widely disseminated and returned from and applied to all Sports Leaders and members.
- This organisation on receiving a complaint, will appoint a disciplinary committee to resolve problems relating to the conduct of its members. This should include bullying.

The complaint will be in writing to the Secretary or Children's Officer and should be responded to within 5 working days.

The committee will consist of a representative from the Management Committee, the Children's Officer and ordinary registered members of the club.

If the complaint involves suspected abuse or a criminal offence the children's officer/designated person should be consulted and the disciplinary committee disbanded. The statutory authorities will then be informed.

The disciplinary committee should review any relevant paper work and hold any necessary meetings with all parties to proceed with complaints into any incident of suspected misconduct that does not relate to child abuse. It will as soon as possible, inform the Management Committee of the progress of the disciplinary process. This should be done within 10 working days.

The disciplinary committee will furnish the individual with the nature of the complaint being made against him/her and afford him/her the opportunity of providing a response either verbally or in writing, but usually at a meeting with the disciplinary committee.

Written confidential records of all complaints should be safely and confidentially kept and club procedures should be defined for the possession of such records in the event of election of new officers.

Where it is established that an incident of misconduct has taken place, the disciplinary committee will notify the member of any sanction being imposed. The notification will be made in writing, setting out the reasons for the sanction. If the member is under 18 years of age, correspondence should be addressed to the parents/ carers.

If the member against whom the complaint was made is unhappy with the decision of the disciplinary committee s/he should have the right to appeal the decision to an appeals committee (independent of a disciplinary committee). Any appeal should be made in writing within an agreed period after issue, usually 10 days of the decision of the disciplinary committee. The chairperson of the appeals committee should be a member of the Management Committee. The appeals committee will consult with the Club Children's Officer in relation to issues of child welfare and codes of conduct.

The appeals committee will have the power to confirm, set aside or change any sanction imposed by the disciplinary committee.

If any party is not satisfied with the outcome the matter can be referred to the relevant Provincial Branch of Tennis Ireland.

The Disciplinary, Complaints & Appeals procedure above is for Code of Behaviour Breaches as it relates to Safeguarding Children & Young People in tennis

However efforts to resolve the issue at local level should be exhausted before the Branch or indeed the National Governing Body is engaged in attempts to resolve the matter.

NB. Dublin Parks Tennis follows the guidelines in Appendix 9 of the Tennis Irelands Safeguarding Policies and Procedures.
